The Conditions imposed have been accepted: Mr. Narasimha Rau prefers to pay pensionary contribution from the date he was relieved here & to refund the leave allowances drawn by him. The Travancore Durbar presume that Mr. Narasimha Rao's services are lent under art 754 (b) of the British Service Regulations & that his contribution will be 1/8 of the assumed pay according to art 755 a ii of the same Regulation. This presumption however is not right. His services are lent under art 388 in S.R & the contribution he has to pay will be 1/11th of the gross salary he receives from the Travancore Durbar as laid down in art 390 in S.R. Art 754 (b) i allows an officer transferred under it substantive promotion from grade to grade. Mr. Narasimha Rao also can get any promotion to which he is entitled by his standing in the Mysore Service. Please see Note to art 406. He has to pay contribution on the gross salary he receives from his foreign employer and not on any assumed pay of the kind mentioned in art 755 a ii. The Travancore Durbar should be asked to intimate the salary they pay to Mr Narasimha Rao. The leave allowances drawn may be repaid by the payment every month of 1/320 of the salary drawn as laid down in Note to art Civil account Code. Mr Narasimha Rao's attention should be drawn to the rules in part III S.R referred to in articles 389 & 390 & 398 to 400. Please draft a letter to Secretary accordingly.

It is understood that Mr. Nanaswamy Row's services have been lent under Article 754(b) (1) of the British Civil Service Regulations, and that his contribution will be $\frac{1}{8}$th of the assumed pay according to Article 755 (a) (ii) of the same Regulations.
